PERSONAL PROJECTS

Uber Rides Data Analysis using Python

(Ongoing)

Fake News Detection

(Dec-Jan 2025)

Fake News Detection uses machine learning to classify news as real or fake. It features a Logistic Regression model, TF-IDF for text processing, and a Streamlit app for predictions, helping combat misinformation.

Pizza Sales:

(Nov-Dec 2024)

In this project, I analyzed pizza sales data using Power BI, cleaning and preprocessing data for accuracy. I created interactive dashboards to visualize total sales, best-selling pizzas, and trends. Insights into customer preferences improved decision-making, inventory management, and marketing strategies.

Zomato Data Analysis

(Mar-April 2024)

I worked on a data science project analyzing Zomato's customer data, performing Exploratory Data Analysis (EDA) and visualizations to uncover insights on monthly transacting customers and restaurant partner trends. The project focused on identifying key patterns and actionable insights for improving food delivery operations.

Job Aura(Job Portal) (July-Oct 2023)

I built JobAura, a Django-based job portal that helps connect job seekers and employers with job listings and applications.
